Dear Jacqui, Senator

Thank you for your representation of 13 April 2016 on behalf of Mr Simon Golding, of Archerfield, concerning an allegation of corruption by the former Australian Customs and Border Protection Service.

I am advised that Mr Golding has recently raised these concerns to a number of Senators and Members of Parliament, including the Assistant Minister for Immigration, Senator the Hon James McGrath.

I understand that the Australian Commission for Law Enforcement Integrity (ACLEI) continues to assess a number of matters raised by Mr Golding. Please be advised that your correspondence has also been forwarded to ACLEI for consideration.

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection will continue to assess and respond to any allegations as required.

Thank you for bringing Mr Golding's concerns to my attention.

Yours sincerely
